

I strongly object to the amendment proposed by the banking community which would weaken the provisions of Indiana's do not call legislation. I DO NOT WANT to receive unsolicited telephone calls from any organization with which I have a business relationship. If I require their services, I will call them Thank you.